

Welcome to the 21st-century treasury.

The new wave of treasury technology is here.

When taking control of your cash, you no longer have to pick between two outdated choices: 1) spreadsheets or 2) legacy treasury management systems that run on 20-year-old technology, require 6 months to a year to implement, and cost hundreds of thousands of dollars.

As a next-gen technology platform, Trovata is helping many of the world's largest financial institutions digitally transform commercial and corporate banking with our growing network of direct API integrations.

What that means for you is the ability to take full control of your own multi-bank data with a single source of truth. Leveraging APIs, a cloud bank data lake, and machine learning technology, Trovata empowers everyone to analyze, report, forecast, and move money like a pro—no matter who your business banks with. No IT required.

Why Trovata?

We built the world's largest open banking API library, connecting directly to 50+ enterprise and 2,000+ corporate banks.

Save 40+ hours monthly by automating bank data aggregation with regularly updated banking APIs

Establish a single source of truth in weeks, not months, with no IT required

Save up to 50% annually by switching from legacy technology providers to Trovata

Finance and Treasury Professionals Love Trovata

“Overall, it’s about the relationship. The people are what make the difference. This is about building something for the longer term. What I have in Trovata is trust that in investing my time, so that in three to five years, we’re mutually reaping the rewards of what we’ve built together.”

- James Krikorian, VP & Treasurer, Krispy Kreme

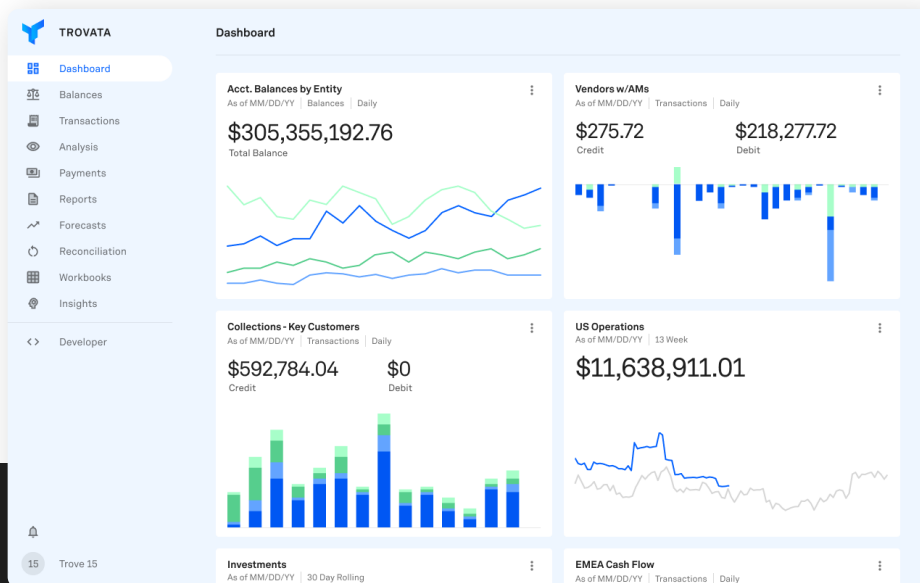

“Straightforward implementation, quick onboarding and easy to use. Trovata is extremely intuitive and easy to understand. Building cash reports and cashflows has never been less manual.”

- Niall Burke, Global Treasury Manager, Eventbrite

“Trovata’s customer success team is very responsive. Whenever we submit a message to them, they get back to us within like five minutes, which is very impressive.”

- Tim DiLillo, Director of Treasury, LogMeIn

Skip the lengthy, complex, and difficult onboarding process that customers face with a legacy TMS, like Kyriba, and get started with Trovata’s modern cash flow management platform today.
